

Programme

Monday, 13 February 2023

15:30 h Welcome coffee

16:00 h Opening session

16:45 h A new perspective on the concept of Just War?

---

Moderated by: Noreen van Elk

A reevaluation of the Just War and Just Peace traditions in the context of the war in Ukraine.

Andrii Tretiak, Lviv/Ukraine [online]

Rome and Constantinople confronting the war in Ukraine: Just War, neutrality and the new world order.

Pavlo Smytsnyuk, Princeton/USA

18:30 h Dinner

Tuesday, 14 February 2023

Breakfast (individually)

09:00 h Historical look at geopolitical contexts

---

Moderated by: Christina Traxler

The geopolitical struggle in Central and Eastern Europe (XX-XXI centuries).

Dmytro Bondarenko, Odessa/Ukraine

The idea of a federation of Poland and Ukraine in the light of the correspondence of the Greek Catholic priest prelate Tyt Vojnarovskij with the Polish diplomat Jan Stanisław Łoś.

Paulina Byzdra-Kusz, Lublin/Poland

10:15 h Break

10:45 h The “Russian world” ideology

---

Moderated by: Christina Dietl

A logical experiment in politics: second scholasticism in creating Russian imperialism.

Volodymyr Shelukhin, Kyiv/Ukraine [online]

Ukrainian Churches and the ideologeme “Russian world” (“Russkii mir”): history and present status.

Nadiia Volik, Ternopil/Ukraine

12:15 h Lunch

13:45 h Ukrainian identity shaping and the discourse of war

---

Moderated by: Noreen van Elk

The transformation of Ukrainian identity and the other. Narrating and living the Russian-Ukrainian war.

Alina Mozolevska, Saarbrücken/Germany

A mythology for Ukraine: Tolkienian discourse of the Russian-Ukrainian war.

Oleksandra Filonenko, Saarbrücken/Germany

15:00 h Break

15:15 h Perceptions of the war in Western Europe

---

Moderated by: Thomas Schulte-Umberg

Consequences of Russian propaganda in Europe.

Roman Sigov, Louvain-la-Neuve/Belgium

Friends or foes?: religious organisations and European institutions in the face of Russia's war on Ukraine.

Iuliia Korniiichuk, Warsaw/Poland

16:30 h Break

17:00 h Women and gendered political rhetoric

---

Moderated by: Alexandra Palkowitsch

The Ukrainian female migrants in Warsaw: the perspective of their sociocultural status.

Joanna Stepaniuk, Warsaw/Poland

The gender aspect of political rhetoric and its origins: the case of Ukraine.

Mariana Myrosh, Leuven/Belgium

18:30 h Dinner: Viennese Heurige

Wednesday, 15 February 2023

Breakfast (individually)

09:00 h Spotlight on Crimea

---

Moderated by: Olha Uhryn

Crimea between two occupations. How the annexation affected the history of the indigenous people of Ukraine – Crimean Tatars.

Gulnara Abdulaeva, Kyiv/Ukraine

Colonization through destruction and distortion: the case of the Bakhchisaray Khan's palace.

Elmira Ablyalimova-Chyihoz, Kyiv/Ukraine

10:15 h Break

10:45 h The role of Muslims and the colonial past for Ukrainian statehood and the politics of memory

---

Moderated by: Khrystyna Fostyak

Muslims in the struggle for the Ukrainian cause and Ukrainian statehood.

Andrii Zhyvachivskyi, Philadelphia/USA

The war and the decolonial memory discourse in Ukraine.

Oleksandra Terentyeva, Innsbruck/Austria

12:15 h Lunch

14:00 h GUIDED CITY TOUR

19:00 h Public lecture "Impunity breeds War Crimes. How to fight it" by Oleksandra Matviichuk

Thursday, 16 February 2023

Breakfast (individually)

10:30 h Cultural impacts I

---

Moderated by: Olha Uhryn

The Ukrainian cultural heritage in the European context. The current situation under the conditions of war.

Iryna Hnidyk, Lviv/Ukraine

Ukrainian sacred art in times of war.

Olesia Lloyd-Mayer, Lutsk/Ukraine

12:15 h Lunch

13:45 h Cultural impacts II

---

Moderated by: Alexandra Palkowitsch

The role of prayer and the church under the conditions of war. Anthropological and folkloristic aspects of the Russian-Ukrainian war.

Yaryna Zakalska, Kyiv/Ukraine

Ukrainian traditional embroidery. A manifestation of national identity in times of war.

Tetiana Kutsyr, Lviv/Ukraine

15:00 h Break

15:15 h State-confessional relations

---

Moderated by: Christina Traxler

Administrative and legal regulations of the relationship between state and churches in Ukraine before and after the Russian invasion of 2022.

Mechyslav Yanauer, Kyiv/Ukraine [online]

The violation of religious freedom in occupied territories in Ukraine since 2014.

Oleksandra Kovalenko, Kyiv/Ukraine

16:30 h Break

17:00 h Impact of the war on communities and individuals

---

Moderated by: Thomas Schulte-Umberg

The impact of the Russian invasion on faith-based communities in Ukraine.

Maksym Vasin, Seattle/USA [online]

First-hand accounts of people living through the war in Ukraine: ethical and theological aspects.

Anton Tarasyuk, Kyiv/Ukraine

18:30 h Dinner

Friday, 17 February 2023

Breakfast (individually)

09:00 h Peacemaking potentials of religious actors

Moderated by: Khrystyna Fostyak

'Overcome Evil with Good' (Romans 12:21): The Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church's responses to the Russo-Ukrainian war.

Kateryna Budz, Edinburgh/UK

Peacemaking activities of His Holiness Patriarch Bartholomew regarding the war in Ukraine.

Patrice Hrimle, Bad Gleichenberg/Austria

Religion at war: Ethical perspectives for religious leaders in Ukraine.

Tetiana Kalenychenko, Kyiv/Ukraine [online]

10:30 h Break

10:45 h Closing session (moderated by Thomas Mark Németh and Thomas Prügl)

12:15 h Lunch

DEPARTURE

Sponsored by:

Stadt
Wien

universität
wien

Department of Historical Theology

Stiftung Zusammenleben,
Liechtenstein

universität
wien

Vienna Doctoral School of Theology
and Research on Religion VDTR

ÖFG // ÖSTERREICHISCHE
FORSCHUNGSGEMEINSCHAFT

Studienvertretung Doktorat Katholische Theologie

